

Queensland Alliance for Environmental Health Sciences

Address: QAEHS, Susan Tett Building, 20 Cornwall Street, Woolloongabba QLD 4102

Accessing the QAEHS Reception Area (Level 3)

Please wait outside the QAEHS reception entrance – a designated team member will meet you here to provide you access inside the building.

Accessing & Departing QAEHS Via Public Transport

Helpful Websites & Apps

- Google Maps
- TransLink Journey Planner

Brisbane City Council Buses

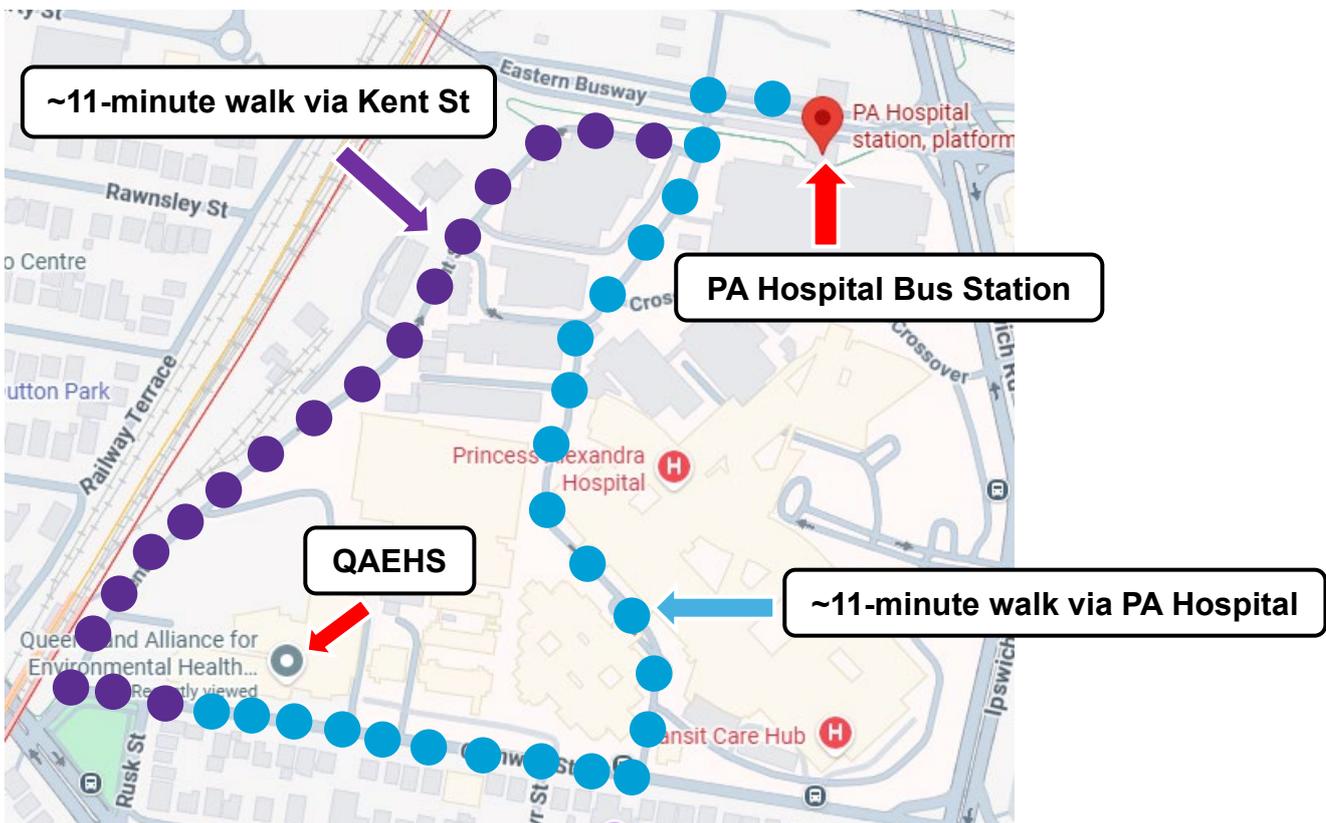

1. Cornwall St at Rusk Street, stop 14a

Inbound (to QAEHS) and outbound (from QAEHS) buses available outside L3 reception.

2. PA Hospital Bus Station

Many inbound and outbound buses available. ~11-minute walk from QAEHS via PA Hospital or Kent Street.

3. Buranda Busway Station

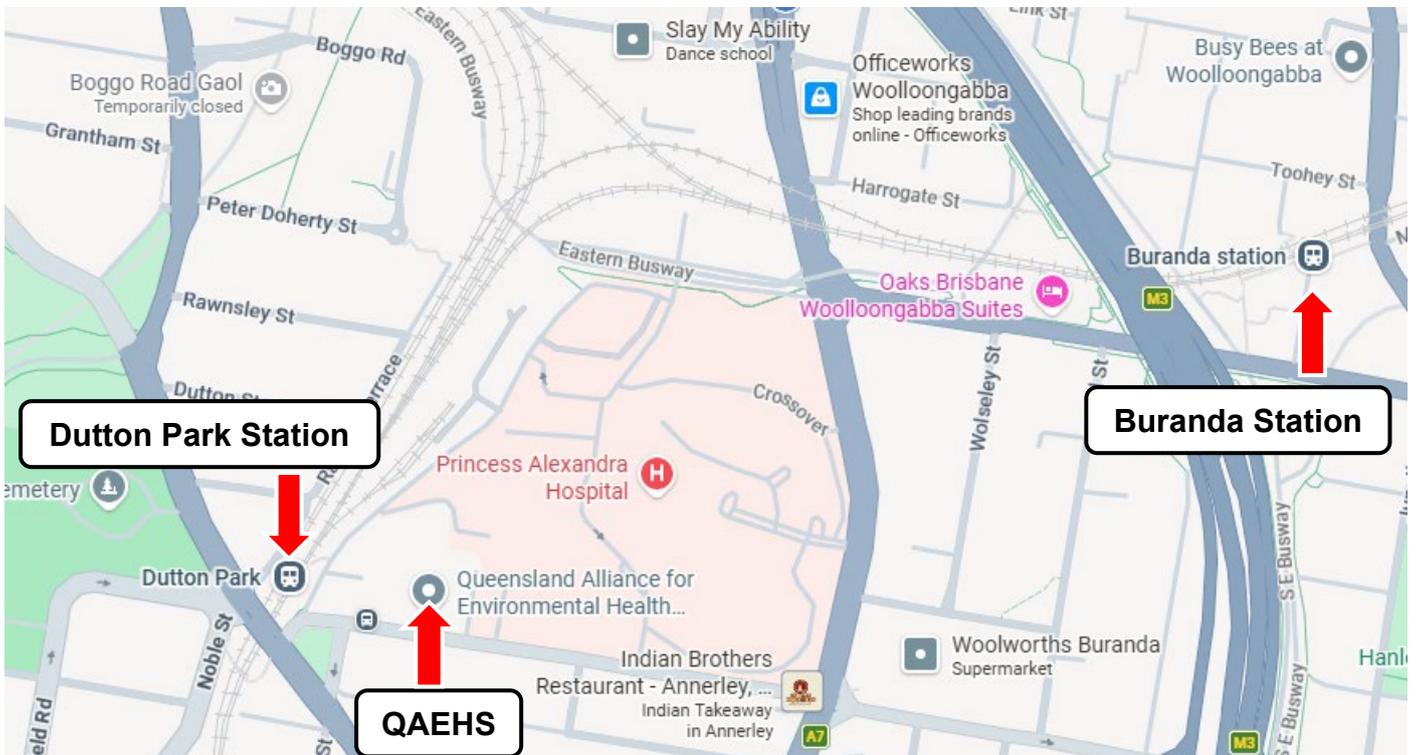

Many inbound and outbound buses available. ~ 21-minute walk from QAEHS.

Queensland Rail Trains

Closest train stations: Dutton Park Station (~ 3-minute walk from QAEHS) & Buranda Station (~21-minute walk from QAEHS)

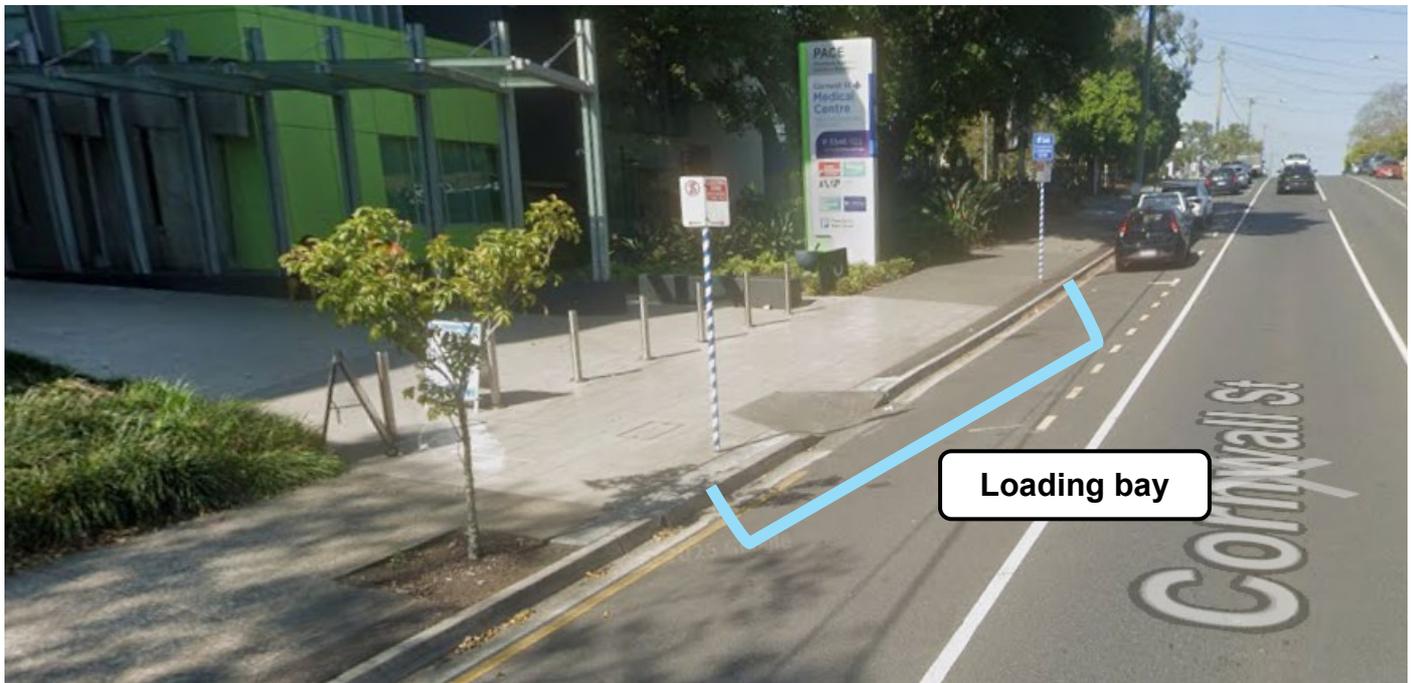

To get to QAEHS (from Brisbane City) via Dutton Park Station or Buranda Station, please change trains (i.e. catch a connecting train) at Roma Street Station.

Accessing & Departing QAEHS Via Taxi or Uber

1. Loading bay outside of Cornwall Street Medical Centre

There is a loading bay outside of the Cornwall Street Medical Centre (between the blue and white striped polls) that Ubers/taxis can utilise as a passenger pickup/drop off point.

Accessing QAEHS Via Personal Vehicle

Parking under Susan Tett building

Undercover parking is accessible from the first entrance on the right off Kent Street. You will need to enter through the boom gates.

From the carpark, take the elevator to Level 4 and turn right. Exit through the main door onto Cornwall Street, turn right, and walk down the street past the bus stop to the QAEHS entrance sign (L3 reception area).

Please note that parking fees do apply and will come at your own cost.

